(View across Crantock Beach and Gannel Estuary to Pentire Point East). The path now undulates, down to 35 feet and up to 135 feet on the way to Pentire Point West and Porth Joke. Cross back of beach and begin a fairly steady climb, with undulations, up to Kelsey Head and a Cliff Castle and on up to 175 feet. Views open up ahead to Holywell Bay, Gull Rocks and Penhale Point and on to Godrevy and West Penwith. Path now undulates, then descends easily through one kissing gate to a second kissing gate where the dunes proper begin. Substantial WM posts, yellow topped, start here. Follow them, on the most obvious path, keeping just L of top of highest dune. Keep going, roughly SSE, until posts appear again. Follow down to small wooden bridge over stream. Here L fork heads into the village to shops and toilets, R fork heads for back of St. Piran's Inn. Now keep R for CP.

Shorter Options

- (a) Omit Ellenglaze and Trevornick. Continue past Holywell Bay holiday park pedestrian entrance. Turn L on lane passing shops. Use a FB over the stream and go R NE along the edge of the dunes to follow a path (WM) up onto The Kelseys to rejoin the full walk at approximately 77820/59383. Reduces walk by 1.25 miles to 5.00 miles.
- (b) Above – “At campsite, path goes L to Porth Joke”. Take this bridleway path, reduces walk to just under 5 miles.
- (c) Omit West Pentire village and West Pentire Point. At the T at the beginning of West Pentire at 77635/60611, turn L following a sign to Porth Joke on first a track and then a FP. Reduces walk by 0.75 miles to 5.50 miles.
